COLONIAL YACHT CLUB'S JUNE 16TH MEETING

PLACE: Monroe Bay Landing

Time: 4:00 P.M. - 8:00 P.M.

Theme: Luau! Luau! Luau! After a brief meeting there will be a Luau on the back deck of Monroe Bay Landing. The DJ will play all the appropriate tunes and Tommy (owner) plans to have a menu that will compliment the theme. So adorn your Luau attire and come join the fun.

COLONIAL YACHT CLUB'S JULY 14th MEETING

PLACE: Dock

Time: To be announced

Theme: ROCK THE DOCK (like the old times)

CYC'S chefs will do us the honors of cooking - everyone else please plan to bring a covered dish. This will take the place of the Port Kinsale cruise. More to come on this event.

50th Annual Potomac River Festival/ Boat Parade - June 9th update

11:00 A.M. Marching Parade - Bridge (dress in uniform) and club members (dress in club golf-shirts) march in Town parade.

4:00 P.M. Boat Parade/ Sail Boat 10-meter race

7:00 P.M. Awards Ceremony

8:00 P.M. Party on the Point ($20.00 covers the dinner and band "Joey and the Jammers") does not include alcohol.

The Town will have a fireworks display.

Grand Marshals for the Parade are Sloan & Betty Wilson.

Sloan Wilson is the author of the following: Voyage to Somewhere, 1946, The Man In The Gray Flannel Suit, 1955, A Summer Place, 1958, A Sense of Values, 1960, Georgie Winthrop, 2963, Janis Island, 1967,

Away From It All, 1969, All The Best People, 1970, What Shall We Wear To This Party, 1976, Small Town, 1978, Ice Brothers, 1979, The Greatest Crime, 1980, Pacific Interlude, 1982, The Man in the Gray Flannel Suit II, 1984.

Maybe Sloan will sign autographs at the Awards Ceremony?

Potomac River Festival 50th Annual T-Shirts are on sale NOW for $10.00 and they look great! Please see Carey Geddes.

Are club rivals Ken Jordan and Jim Halsey up to the boat decorating task for the 50th celebration?

In the past they have been able to top the previous year with themes of the Islands, Christmas,

Show Boat and Noah's Ark and many others. The best!

Sea Doo competitors will have to try hard to top Buz and Doris Buswell's biker babe and dude theme.

COLONIAL YACHT CLUB CRUISE SCHEDULE 2001

Fleet Captain Bill Johnson had planned three cruises 2001:

Port Kinsale, Port Kinsale Marina, July 14, 15 HAS BEEN CANCELED!

June 23,24,25 - Gangplank Marina, Washington DC and August 18, 19, 20th to Solomons Island are both a go.

CBYC BAR-B-QUE

CBYC (Kyle & Relda Schick) held their Annual Memorial Day Bar-b-que to kick off the boating season. Dockside Restaurant chef Brian did the cooking. Billy Hancock played the music and everyone else enjoyed the wonderful sunshine (for a change), good food and entertainment.

Commodore Frank Markham exchanged burgees with the Occoquan Yacht Club. Occoquan cruised to Colonial Beach Yacht Center for the Memorial weekend and stated they enjoyed their stay.

Thanks Kyle and Relda!

SICK CALL

Page Goode

Otis Lancaster

(Please contact Myrtle Nelson if you know of any CYC member ailing. She mails the cards for the club).

CONGRATULATIONS

Dee and Gary Seeber's grandson Thomas born May 11. Mom and baby are doing well.

Carol and Millard Owen's grandson Robert for making his First Holy Communion.

WELCOME ABOARD

Kevin Randall our new Dockmaster. Kevin came to work for CBYC in April. He is originally from Lancaster, California but has spent many years in the Florida Keys sport fishing as a freelance mate.

He has the end of dock store in ship shape, he is quite pleasant and we wish him the best for a long stay.

Kevin would also like boaters to please tell him when they are planning to leave the dock for either a day trip or to have their boats pulled/railed, cruise vacations. He is worried about you and would like to have a schedule so he knows all is well. He is thinking safety and of you the boater.

Kevin Randal, Dockmaster - Colonial Yacht Center
